AmCham Mongolia hosts His Excellency Ch. Saikhanbileg, Prime Minister of Mongolia

ULAANBAATAR, Mongolia – The American Chamber of Commerce in Mongolia (AmCham) hosted a meeting on Wednesday, March 16, 2016 with His Excellency Chimed Saikhanbileg, Prime Minister of Mongolia. The meeting convened over 100 domestic and international business leaders to hear directly from the Prime Minister about government’s current policy priorities and an overview of the economic outlook of Mongolia.

AmCham Mongolia has hosted His Excellency three times in the past twelve months and Mr. Prime Minister remarked, "It has become a good tradition to meet with AmCham Mongolia on an annual basis. I would like to hear from you about the challenges you face in doing business and discuss what we can do together to address them."

“The Mongolian government is committed to do everything in our power to continue economic reform and tackle corruption,” said His Excellency during his keynote remarks about the government’s policy priorities. “AmCham Mongolia and our members are willing and ready to work with you to find ways empower the private sector to create jobs and opportunities for the Mongolian People” said Magnai Ganzorig, Vice Chairman of AmCham’s Board of Directors during his welcoming remarks.

About AmCham Mongolia

AmCham Mongolia is an independent membership-driven organization that seeks to build, strengthen, and protect business between the United States and Mongolia and to actively promote Mongolia as a destination for American investment. AmCham Mongolia is the official local office of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. Based in Washington, DC, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce is the largest business federation in the world with over 3 million member companies.
