U.S. Ambassador to Lead AmCham's Fourth Annual U.S. Trade Mission

ULAANBAATAR, Mongolia. - The American Chamber of Commerce (AmCham) in Mongolia is hosting its fourth annual U.S. Trade Mission from June 12-14, 2017, in Washington, D.C. under the leadership of the Honorable Jennifer Zimdahl Galt, U.S. Ambassador to Mongolia, commemorating the 30th anniversary of U.S.-Mongolia diplomatic relations. Senior Mongolian government officials led by His Excellency Ts. Munkh-Orgil, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Mongolia, will also take part in the Trade Mission.

AmCham has been hosting the annual U.S. Trade Mission since 2014, in an effort to strengthen the commercial relationship between Mongolia and the United States. The Trade Mission provides a rare opportunity for U.S. and Mongolian businesses and investors to develop strong networks and to advocate for Mongolia as a destination for American investment.

Trade Mission delegates will have the opportunity to attend face-to-face meetings with influential policy makers to advocate for initiatives that are important to Mongolia, attend special events with American companies and key policy makers, establish valuable networks, and identify important financing opportunities.

The Trade Mission includes potential meetings with prominent public and private sector representatives, such as representatives from the U.S. House of Representatives and the Senate, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC), U.S. Export-Import Bank, U.S. Department of Commerce, U.S. Department of Agriculture, U.S. Trade Representative's Office, U.S. Department of Treasury, U.S. Department of State, U.S. Trade and Development Agency, senior Mongolian government officials, the Mongolian Ambassador in the U.S., businesses interested in investing in Mongolia, and other preferred potential business partners.

Businesses and companies that are interested in participating in the Trade Mission, can contact AmCham at info@amcham.mn or +976 7000-3437 for more detailed information
