AmCham Mongolia welcomes a new Event Coordinator

ULAANBAATAR – The American Chamber of Commerce (AmCham) in Mongolia is pleased to announce that Ms. Baigal Gan-Erdene is joining the AmCham team as Event Coordinator. Prior to joining AmCham, Baigal worked as Program Coordinator for the International Republican Institute in Mongolia and has experience working with various governmental and non-governmental stakeholders. Baigal holds a B.A. in Human Geography and Economics from the University of British Columbia in Vancouver, Canada.

“I’m excited to join the AmCham Mongolia team as Event Coordinator and to contribute to the organization’s strong commitment to strengthen U.S.-Mongolia relations through continued partnership with our members. I look forward to working with the leading businesses in Mongolia to promote the private sector and its growth,” Baigal said following her appointment.

Chairman of the AmCham Mongolia Board of Directors Jay Liotta commented, “Baigal is a tremendous asset for AmCham’s continued growth and quality member services. Her experience will be a great advantage for developing this position.”

About AmCham Mongolia

AmCham Mongolia is an independent membership-driven organization that seeks to build, strengthen, and protect business between the United States and Mongolia, and to actively promote Mongolia as a destination for American investment. AmCham Mongolia is the official local affiliate of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. Based in Washington, D.C., the U.S. Chamber of Commerce is the largest business federation in the world with over 3 million member companies.
