AmCham Mongolia Selects Director of Policy and Advocacy

ULAANBAATAR, Mongolia– The Board of Directors of the American Chamber of Commerce in Mongolia, or “AmCham Mongolia,” is very pleased to announce that Mr. Adiya Oyungerel has been selected as its new Director of Policy and Advocacy. Before joining AmCham Adiya worked as a project coordinator at Artisanal mining project of Swiss Development Cooperation agency. He also has extensive policy experience in the private sector working with Oyu Tolgoi, the government, and a number of development agencies including EBRD, The UN and SDC. Adiya holds an MBA from the University of Sheffield in UK with major in FDI Promotion.

"I am privileged to join AmCham Mongolia as the Director of Policy and Advocacy and look forward to making significant contributions to improving Mongolia's business environment through targeted advocacy efforts. I am excited to be working with such an important organization that works to make Mongolia an attractive place for investment and promotes the U.S.-Mongolia commercial relationship," said Adiya.

Jackson Cox, Chairman of AmCham commented, "I am delighted that Adiya has joined AmCham as its Director of Policy and Advocacy. This is a time of great consequence for all businesses in Mongolia and AmCham reaffirms its commitment to strengthen the commercial relationship between the United States and Mongolia and promote Mongolia as a destination for global investment. Adiya will lead AmCham's efforts to ensure Mongolia's business environment is improved by advocating for pro-growth policies and giving voice to AmCham's diverse and excellent member companies."
